Dees Cemetery

The Dees Cemetery is located in the NW 1/4 of Section 30, T6S R4W, off Franklin Creek Road, southwest of Whitehead's Lime Storage Area, Jackson County, Mississippi. The Dees Cemetery was established in 1853 by Calvin E. Dees for the burial of his son Phillip John Dees, who died November 11, 1853. The cemetery is 50' by 60'.

Tombstone inscriptions were recorded by John A. Martiniere and Clifton M. Dees, October 15, 1986 and updated Clifton M. Dees and Harry H. McDonald, Sr., December 6, 1995. On September 14, 1996, the Scouts from Troop 220 restored this cemetery to the best of their ability. Most of the markers are broken and several are missing.

MEMORIES OF LOUISE FRASIER SMITH

Papa's

~~Papa's~~ father was DAVID FRAZIER. He was born 1829 in Virginia and his family moved to Mississippi about 1831. It was in Mississippi that he married MARTHA MARTIN FRAZIER, the widow of his deceased elder brother, Charles H. Frazier.

Martha and Charles H. Frazier had four sons - Bob, Henry, Sam and Charlie. They were David's step-sons as well as his nephews. Martha and David then had seven children of their own - Rodney; Mary; Nancy; Lawrence; Fleming; David; and my father, WILLIAM SIMON, called "Bill".

Bill

~~Bill~~ married VIRGINIA ELIZABETH SANDERS from near Goodman, Mississippi. Bill and Virgie, as she was called, had ten children. Six of them were born in Mississippi: Martin; Ida; Dave; Lessie; Percy; and Albert. The entire family moved to Timothy, Louisiana, about 1903, and I was born there. Their oldest son, Martin, and Bill's mother, Martha, died in Timothy, and are buried in the Cemetery there. Bill and Virgie were the Postmaster of Timothy, but the grief and confinement after the deaths of Martin and Martha was so great that they moved to Minden, Louisiana, in 1907. They settled seven miles out of Minden on the Dorcheat Road, and it was there that my grandfather, David, died. He was taken back to Timothy and buried near Martha.

While we lived on Dorcheat Road, two more sons were born...Joseph Longino Frasier (named for Dr. Longino who delivered him) and Rubin Aston Frasier. Perhaps the proximity to the Dorcheat Bayou influenced Longino to be the great fisherman he later became.

After these two boys were born, Bill and Virgie sold out and moved five miles out of Minden on the same road - at this point called "Willark Road". It was here that their last child, Johnnie Kathryn Frasier was born.

Bill was a road contractor and this occupation kept him on the "road" a lot. He had three farms, though, with tenant farmers and provided well for his family, always striving for the best for it. He built many roads - at the time he was living, he had built every road from Minden - and many others. He finally moved his family into Minden on Constable Street, where he died in 1934.

Virgie was born Virginia Elizabeth Sanders, near Goodman, Mississippi on April 23, 1873. She died in Minden, Louisiana November 17, 1952, and all who knew her, loved her. Her mother, Virginia Edith Barwick, was born September 14, 1842, in Mississippi. She married February 20, 1862, Martin Rush Sanders. They had only three children - Virginia Elizabeth (Virgie); Josephine; and John Percy. They lived at Leoda, Mississippi and owned a store on the Mississippi River, there. Leoda is a short distance down river from Greenville. It was here that Captain (as he was called) Martin Rush Sanders died. Virginia Edith then moved back to Goodman and after her children were grown and married, she then married Joseph Turner. She reared three of his children by a previous marriage. After Mr. Turner died, she moved to Minden, Louisiana, and lived with Bill and Virgie until she died in 1925. Her children, Josephine, and John, moved to Shreveport, Louisiana, where they died later. Josephine married John Williams and had several children: Joseph, Lavona, Mae, Johnnie, Mabel, and Ruby. They are all dead except Ruby who married Jack Jones and is living in Shreveport. John married a young lady named Henrietta. I do not know her maiden name, but they had three daughters: Velma; Carrie; and Doris; who still live in Shreveport.

I have some very delightful memories of my childhood - such as Percy calling "goodnight" each night to every member of the family. By the time he got to the last one, he was almost asleep. And Longino, trying to out-run his dog, pretending it was a "mad" dog.

There was a family "rule" - each one had his place at the table for meals, and we were all present when the Blessing was asked. At night, after we got ready for bed, we knelt by mama's chair and she read our prayers. We enjoyed and loved each other. We knew our duties and carried them out as expected.

Dave and Percy were contractors. Ida, Lessie, and Johnnie were housewives. Albert served in the Army (as did Dave), was a contractor and an auto body man. I am a housewife and a nurse. Longino and Rubin were automobile body men, self-employed.

As Sislie was a daughter of Harrison and Ginie is listed as sister. Also family verbal history says that one of Ginie's sisters married a Sid White. Margaret Minerva Cobb was not listed as she married B.F. Frazier in 1880. The 1870 census microfilm is unreadable in places so I have not yet found Ginie or Margaret Minerva listed in Leake county for that period.

PREFACE

This book is an attempt to record historical information on the descendants of WILLIAM SIMON FRASIER and VIRGINIA ELIZABETH SANDERS, his wife, and to give a brief history of the origin of the family name in Normandy, France, and the Scottish Clan heridity of the family. The source of these records has been identified where possible. Most legal documents and census records were obtained from official records of Louisiana, Mississippi, and Virginia.

To present attempts to establish the direct lineage from WILLIAM SIMON FRASIER back to Scotland have been unsuccessful due to the records in many county courthouses having been destroyed by fire during the Civil War and later. Our documented records begin with BENJAMIN FRAZIER who was born in Virginia about 1786. He married LUCY LUSTER and they had several children of which DAVID FRAZIER was next to the youngest son. DAVID was born 1829 in Virginia. His younger brother, BENJAMIN, was born 1832 in Mississippi, according to the 1850 Federal Census. Thus, it is safe to assume that BENJAMIN and LUCY came to Mississippi between 1829 and 1832.

LUCY LUSTER FRAZIER was the niece of DAVID BAILEY, a wealthy landowner in Mississippi. DAVID BAILEY died January 1831 in Madison County, Mississippi, and it is believed that his death, and the forthcoming inheritance motivated BENJAMIN FRAZIER and family to move to Mississippi.

CHARLES H. FRAZIER, an older son of BENJAMIN and LUCY, married MARTHA MARTIN and they had four sons before CHARLES died at age 28 of "a fever". After CHARLES died, his brother DAVID married MARTHA and they had seven children, of which WILLIAM SIMON FRAZIER, born 1866, was the last.

CHARLES' and MARTHA'S oldest son, ROBERT, moved his family to Timothy, Louisiana. We do not know what the attraction was, but his younger brother, CHARLES, moved to Timothy a few years later. Then, about 1903, WILLIAM SIMON FRAZIER and his family went there, and changed the spelling of the name to FRASIER. DAVID and MARTHA FRAZIER joined WILLIAM SIMON and VIRGINIA and lived with them until their deaths.

Though efforts to document BENJAMIN'S parents have been fruitless to-date, there is reason to believe his father was WILLIAM JOHN FRAZIER who enlisted in the Virginia Militia and served in the Revolutionary War. A book in the Dallas, Texas library "Court Records of Mississippi 1800-1855" lists a lawsuit filed by R. L. Suggs in Holmes County, Mississippi against W. J. FRAYSER, not of the State of Mississippi. Among the heirs listed was a BENJAMIN FRAYSER. Attempts to follow-up on this lead failed, as the Holmes County Courthouse burned in the 1880's with a loss of all records.

We have left space in this book for future generations to record additional information as it becomes available. It is anticipated and hoped that this will be done.
